"Resolved, That we hereby express to Brother M. Bamford and the people of Oskaloosa and vicinity, our heartfelt thanks for their welcome and hospitality. We are glad we have come, have enjoyed their hospitality, and will be glad to come again. We thank the local newspapers for courteous and full reports of our proceedings, and the trustees of the Christian Church for the use of their Church."

Announcements of special appointments were read by Dr. Coxe. (See page 83.)

The committees for 1898 were nominated. (See page 84.)

Brother Schreckengast was appointed to deliver an educational address at the next session.

Statistical Report No. 2 was ordered omitted from the published Minutes.

On motion, after the closing of the religious services and the reading of the Appointments, it was resolved that the Conference stand adjourned sine die.

The Conference then united in singing the hymn commencing "A charge to keep I have."

Prayer was offered by Rev. T. J. Myers.

The Bishop then addressed the Conference with reference to the work of the coming year, and read the Appointments for 1897-98.

The doxology was then sung, and the benediction pronounced by Bishop FitzGerald.

REPORTS OF PRESIDING ELDERS.

BURLINGTON DISTRICT.

G. M. TUTTLE, Presiding Elder.

IN presenting this, my first report of the Burlington District, I do it with feelings of profound gratitude to God for his abounding grace, which has kept me in life and almost uninterrupted health during the year. With great timidity, and a consciousness of my own inability to undertake a charge attended with such grave responsibilities, I entered upon the work assigned me; but the very hearty reception accorded me, both by my brethren in the ministry and the laity of the Church wherever I have gone throughout the district, had served to contribute largely to whatever measure of success I may have had, and for which I here record my hearty thanks.

The territory of the Burlington District embraces a little more than three counties, and has twenty-six regular charges, giving in all seventy-two societies, two of which have been added during the year, viz.: Wever, adjacent to the Burlington Circuit,—this was tentatively occupied some few years since, and was abandoned, but at present a more permanent future of our Church work here is assured,—also an appointment with a church-building, known as the "Walnut Creek," near Germanville, in the bounds of Mt. Pleasant West Circuit. This was turned over to my care by the presiding elder of the Burlington District of the St. Louis German Methodist Episcopal Conference. With a growing desire on the part of the younger members of the Church and congregation for services in the English tongue, and not being convenient for our German brethren to supply the work, unless at too great expense, the change was therefore made. This gives to the Mt. Pleasant West Circuit four appointments, with possibilities for a strong work.

The year, in many respects, has been one of varied and peculiar experiences. Soon after Conference the pastors entered upon the duties assigned them, and all continued their work without any interruption, save two, viz.: Brothers C. W. Evans, of the Sperry Circuit, and P. C. Hogle, of Salem. The difficulties attending these two brethren were of such character as to necessitate a preliminary trial on an investigation in each case, which resulted in suspending them from the ministry and membership of the Church, which findings are now in the hands of the Conference for final action. The Sperry Charge was supplied thereafter by Brother Lloyd Tennant, a local preacher, and student of the Iowa Wesleyan University, while the Salem work has been supplied by Brother J. B. Hill, a superannuated member of the Conference.

The health of the preachers and their families has been generally good, but with the following exceptions: In the beginning of the year sickness entered the family of Brother A. S. Loveall, of Morning Sun, whose wife was seriously indisposed for several weeks, but has been fully restored. So also the wife of Brother W. L. Clapp, of Crawfordsville. For some time her health was in a precarious condition; but it is confidently believed that she is now improving. During the early part of the winter, death entered the parsonage of First Church, Mt. Pleasant, leaving Brother and Sister Stoddard to mourn the absence of their youngest, Harlan, aged six years. In the early part of summer we were called to mourn the death of Dr. Thomas E. Corkhill. In this, however, not the Burlington District alone, but the Iowa Conference and Iowa Methodism have sustained a great loss. In his life he gave evidence of unswerving fidelity to the interests of the Church, particularly to the cause of Christian education as represented in the character and work of the Iowa Wesleyan University. During his final illness it was a benediction to visit him. His confidence in the Redeemer was unshaken, and his care for the interests of the Church was heard in kindly words of encouragement and hope for those of his brethren in the ministry. Such a life closed with a most triumphant death.

The following improvements in Church property have obtained:

Big Mound, on the Hillsboro Circuit, dedicated a neat church edifice free of debt, at a cost of about $1,500.

Morning Sun also has succeeded in erecting a beautiful and commodious house of worship at a cost of $5,000, and dedicated it free of debt, raising a surplus of $1,000.

A new church-building is now under way at Stockport, Hillsboro Circuit, a growing town on the Chicago, Fort Madison, and Des Moines Railway.

The First Church, Burlington, was damaged by fire on the interior in the early part of the year, but has been repaired and beautified beyond its former condition. Under the able and efficient ministry of the pastor, Brother R. F. Hurlburt, this Church has had a very prosperous year. Grace Church, also, is succeeding in providing for its indebtedness, and has paid off the claim on the parsonage. Fort Madison, too, is happy over the fact that its old Church debt, $1,500, has been paid.

Many of the churches have been repainted and otherwise improved during the year.

Two sessions of the District Conference have been held, with a good attendance and a helpful interest; also, one District Epworth League Convention, which was an occasion of great religious enthusiasm. There are hopeful signs among the young people for well-planned, aggressive, Christian work. There are about thirty-four Chapters of the Epworth League, membership 1,434; seventeen Junior Leagues, membership 317; and one Endeavor Society. There are about sixteen Auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and five of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, within the district.

While the religious condition of the district is not all we could wish, still there are indications of life and signs of promise.

Crawfordsville, W. L. Clapp pastor, has had a very prosperous year. A series of meetings at each of the two appointments resulted in the conversion of about one hundred souls, the greater part of whom have, or will, come into full fellowship with our Church. This resuscitated charge is already beginning to surpass its former history. The church-building, though recently constructed, is in much need of being enlarged to accommodate the increasing congregations, but the only way to accomplish it on its present location is to enlarge toward heaven.

Grace Church, Burlington, G. B. Swartz pastor, has likewise shared in a gracious revival, and a large ingathering to its membership. Mediapolis, also, M. J. Pusey pastor, has been rewarded in his labor with the conversion of a large number, all of whom have been saved to the Church. The explanation of this, in part at least, is found in the special care which the pastor gave to his probationers, instructing them in the doctrines and Discipline of the Church from the time of their conversion until received into full fellowship. Fort Madison, First Church, too, through the special services held by the pastor, J. C. Willits, has added to its roll of faithful workers. So, also, of West Point. Pastor A. M. Mahaffie has been cheered with accessions to the Church, and a healthful growth along all lines of work. Mt. Pleasant also, W. P. Stoddard, has had some seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord, which have added to the strength of the Church. Special services were held in all of the charges, with more or less gratifying results.

I have been carefully observing all the requirements of the Discipline in connection with our Quarterly and District Conferences as to reports. I find that constant vigilance is necessary, or these interests will be neglected to the detriment of the business affairs of the Church. I am gratified over the timely provision of blank reports for the District Conference, which I verily believe, if used, will help to make these gatherings in the district seasons of interest and profit to all concerned.

In view of the circumstances, I now call the attention of the Conference to our educational interests. This I wish to do briefly, as other reports will cover more fully all the items in the case.

The Iowa Wesleyan University has had a fairly prosperous year, considering the hard times. The Board of Trustees and Conference Visitors met pursuant to regular call in the library room, June 14th, and transacted such business as regularly came before them. The Faculty was re-elected for the ensuing year, which gives general satisfaction. The consolidation of the "Howe Academy" with the Iowa Wesleyan University by the trustees was evidently a wise move, will no doubt find favor with all, and can not fail to add to the efficiency of the university by bringing a larger number of the young people into touch with the opportunity for a higher education. The whole number of students in attendance during the year was 321. The number who graduated from the various departments of the college were as follows:

In the Classical Course.....	8
In the Philosophical Course.....	1
In the Scientific Course.....	9
In the Literary Course.....	2
In the Music Course.....	7
Total	27

The examinations developed very great satisfaction, both as to the ability of the instructors and the thorough work done by the students, and reflected credit on the work and management of the university.

The Mechanical Building was completed and equipped last January, and to some extent was patronized by the students. Undoubtedly this department has a desirable future for the school.

The Elizabeth Hershey Hall, or Ladies' Dormitory, is now completed with all the modern improvements and conveniences, and is a perfect model for strength and beauty, and fills a long-felt want for lady students. Quite a number of rooms are being furnished for immediate occupancy, and under the wise management of the Board will add largely to the much-needed facilities of the school.

Our Methodism must keep in touch with the progress of the times and with every vital interest of humanity, and to do so, we must maintain and develop to the highest possible degree of efficiency our colleges and universities. Outside of this we are circumscribed in all our efforts. The growing desire on the part of our young people for that broad culture, known as Christian education, is providential, and in strict accord with the faith and prayers of the Church. This godly ambition to fit themselves for the highest possible usefulness ought to receive encouragement; otherwise irreparable loss will be sustained.

I think I can vouch for the loyalty and devotion of the Burlington District to this vital interest, and whatever may be the expressed judgment of the Conference as to method or plans of work for the coming year touching the university, by which it will be better prepared to do its work, and make good all that its title signifies, meeting all the pressing demands of the hour, I pledge you the hearty co-operation of the preachers of the district, and through them the laymen.

It was the unanimous judgment of the Board of Trustees, and so expressed by vote, that Brother T. J. Myers be appointed by the Bishop of this Conference to the treasurership and agency of the university, to which he has been elected. This everywhere finds approval.

The benevolences, I fear, will not measure up to those of last year. In hope that the times would improve, many of the brethren deferred their collections until late, when local and other causes largely prevented. Still I am confident that the brethren, as a rule, have labored faithfully to meet their apportionments, and only for the lack of a larger faith on the part of the Church, they would have been met.

Our Church literature is generally used in our Sunday-schools, but the exceptions ought to be corrected as soon as possible. In many of the homes of our people it is painfully absent.

The great need of the district is a sweeping, Scriptural revival of religion after the old Methodist plan. Whatever may be the peculiar part of other denominations, Methodism is nothing without the baptism and witness of the Holy Ghost. We must keep our altar fires burning.

KEOKUK DISTRICT.

T. J. MYERS, Presiding Elder.

IN submitting my annual report, and the sixth of service on this district, I desire to acknowledge a gracious Providence that has permitted us to pursue the work of these years without hindrance from serious sickness, or even slight interruption from temporary illness. With one or two exceptions, I am pleased to report for the year general good health for the pastors and their families. Brother Barker, of Eldon, was laid aside for two months or more from a lameness that required surgical treatment. During his absence at the hospital, the brethren of the district kindly consented to fill his pulpit. The wife of Brother Beckham, who had been for months confined to her room from nervous affliction, was advised to go to Kirksville, Mo., for treatment. This necessitated the resignation of Brother Beckham as pastor of Mystic Charge, which took place the 10th day of April, and Brother E. J. Smith, a probationer of the St. Louis German Conference, was appointed to supply the charge. Brother Lawson, early in the Conference year, was transferred to India, and Exline was left to be supplied, and Brother Loughridge, a local elder of Centerville, was appointed to take this work. Except these irregularities, the work of the district has been most harmonious and satisfactory as between pastors and people. Death has come into the homes of two ministers. Brother John Burgess, a superannuated member of the Conference, after months of suffering, passed peacefully to his reward in heaven. The young and only daughter of Brother and Sister Barton, a promising and lovely girl of fifteen years, was stricken down with disease, and passed out of her young life to joys immortal in the life beyond.

REVIVALS.—The year has not been marked with extensive revival results. Most of the charges of the district have had conversions and accessions to the Church from probation, resulting in the aggregate between seven and eight hundred accessions. The benevolent causes of the Church have all been faithfully presented, and the results will show that the people are still in hearty sympathy with the missionary work of the Church. I hardly expected that we should be able to report the amount of last year, but we shall have a small increase. I am glad to note that there has been more earnest and systematic work done by the pastors in the benevolences than formerly, and this is having an educational effect, as well as to increase the collections.

A new parsonage has been built on the Troy Circuit. A new church is in process of erection at Bonaparte to cost $3,500, and is a much-needed improvement. Several churches have been rearranged and reseeded, that have much improved their appearance and convenience. Two of these are on the Batavia Charge, one at County Line, and the other at Bladensburg. Milton has been temporarily enlarged, waiting the time to build a new and commodious edifice. The chapel at Lebanon has been remade, and is virtually a new church. The Church property of the district is quite well cared for, and while we can not boast of expensive buildings, they answer the purposes, and, as a rule, are neat and clean.

The salaries of the preachers were fixed at about the same as last year, with a slight increase in a few charges. The stringency of financial matters has made payments slow, and in a few cases there will be serious deficiency. While the times have been close, the great want in order to succeed in all financial matters of the Church is the right men for stewards. The Scriptural injunction is as much a necessity now as it was in former says, "It is required in stewards that a man be found faithful." Our District Conferences have been well attended by the ministerial members, two sessions of which have been held, the fall session at Batavia, in October, and the summer session at Keosauqua, in July. These we find helpful to all interests of district work. The records of these District Conferences are here for inspection by the proper committee. A profitable and enthusiastic District League was held at Fairfield last May. The organization of the Leagues has proven to be very beneficial to the young life of the Church. I here make special mention of the Junior League, as being a real help and blessing to the children of the Church and Methodism. Children's-day was quite generally observed, and the results have not been disappointing. The eighty Sunday-schools are doing well, and maintaining their numerical strength. A majority are organized into Missionary Societies. I should be glad to report a greater growth in every way, but rejoice in the good degree of prosperity that has been attained.

In submitting my last annual report, it may be well to note some of the changes that have been made, as also the evidence of growth during the six years. Two years ago a readjustment of the charges was made, that gave us, we think, a more compact and convenient arrangement of the district. Two charges were added, Libertyville and Batavia. Five new churches have been built; viz., Birmingham, Montrose, White Chapel, Douds, and Mt. Moriah. Nine parsonages have been built or purchased; viz., Montrose, Moulton, Mystic, Libertyville, West Grove, Mt. Zion, Salina, Cantril, and Troy. Other properties have been much improved. Fairfield has purchased a site for a parsonage, at a cost of $1,000, and in the coming year may build a modern and commodious home for the pastor. I found, at the close of my first year, a total membership in the district of five thousand ninety three. We now have more than seven thousand, showing a net gain of between seventeen and eighteen hundred. We have raised in these six years a total for missions of nineteen thousand five hundred dollars; for Church Extension, eleven hundred dollars; for Freedmen's Aid, ten hundred and fifty dollars; for Iowa Wesleyan University, seventeen hundred dollars; for ministerial support, one hundred and twenty-four thousand nine hundred dollars. These figures, compared with the aggregate amounts of the six preceding years, show a gain for missions of seven thousand six hundred and sixteen dollars; Church Extension, three hundred and seventy dollars; Freedmen's Aid, three hundred dollars; ministerial support, twenty-one thousand seven hundred and fifty-four dollars; Conference claimants, seven hundred and twenty-five dollars.

The total number of preachers who have labored with us in these six years on the Keokuk District is fifty-four. Of these, four have died; viz., Brothers Carl, Robinson, Power, and Murphy. There has been no year of the six that we have not had some revival, and in most of these the pastor has been the revivalist.

Our people in the main are loyal Methodists, and are satisfied with the doctrines and polity of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and have no controversy with those who differ from us.

In leaving the district, it is gratifying to hand over to my successor a loyal and enthusiastic membership, a carefully chosen and well organized list of Official Boards and Quarterly Conferences, and a roll of pastors who will stand by the old Church and the presiding elder, and who believe in the gospel as the power of God unto salvation, a ministry and membership whose chief business is to save men and spread holiness over these lands.

In concluding this report, I desire in this formal way to express my sincere obligations to the brethren who have labored with us in these years for the hearty welcome I have received at your hands and into your homes. We trust the record on high will accord to each one of you, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

MUSCATINE DISTRICT.

J. C. W. COXE, Presiding Elder.

I CLOSE my second year on the Muscatine District with gratitude for unimpaired strength, for signal marks of Divine favor, and for the hearty co-operation and love of my brethren, the pastors of the district.

The year has been one of general peace and prosperity. Revival influences have prevailed on most of the charges—notably so where "the people had a mind to work." One case may be mentioned without suspicion of invidious comparison. Brother D. C. Bevan, appointed to Letts Charge, early found a revival spirit abroad at Grandview, and more than one hundred professed conversion. In a meeting held later at Letts, nearly an equal number came into the kingdom. This result illustrates a marked feature incident to our economy, that "one soweth and another reapeth;" to the God of the harvest be all the glory! I shall not essay a detailed report of revival efforts and results, preferring that the pastors make these returns; but I bear witness to faithful, earnest, consecrated labor on the part of these servants of the Church.

Nor do I attempt to forestall the pastoral reports on benevolences. These have, in most cases, been diligently looked after, and the exhibit will be creditable; where any marked failure may appear, I am apprehensive that it may be accounted for by the fact that General Delay was in charge of the forces, and that his movements were uniformly too late. I have remonstrated against this policy, as also against the running of a public omnibus in the hope of getting rich on ten-cent fares; but not always effectually.

A free-will offering toward the indebtedness of the Freedmen's Aid Society was taken on many of the charges, and a similar offering was asked in the interest of the missionary debt. The aggregate of these efforts I am unable to state, as some of the brethren forgot to respond to my request for returns.

In the improvement of churches and parsonages, not quite the usual activity has prevailed, though some noteworthy results have been achieved. On Sabbath afternoon, May 9th, a fire broke out in First Church, Muscatine, which in a short time reduced the structure to a desolate ruin. Promptly after the adjustment of the insurance the work of repair was begun, and the renovated building, now nearing completion, will in many ways be more attractive and valuable than before.

A new church has been long needed at North English; under the leadership of Brother J. R. Payne, the people with marked unanimity said, "Let us rise up and build." The work is well under progress, and it is to be hoped that before winter the neat and commodious house may be dedicated to the service of God. On the Millersburg Charge all the old debts have been decently buried, and improvements made at Hope Chapel costing nearly $100, with all bills paid. A similar happy result has been reached on the Victor Charge as to indebtedness, and the church at Guernsey has new windows, while a good bell summons the worshipers to the house of prayer—and the $140 expense is paid. Marengo has expended $82 in repairs; at Keswick, on the Webster Charge, a Church Extension loan has been discharged; and at West Liberty a furnace is to diffuse genial heat through the parsonage, greatly to the comfort and convenience of the occupants thereof.

At a recent session of the District Conference the pastors pledged $100 for the furnishing of four rooms in the Elizabeth Hershey Hall of our university, in order to promptly facilitate the opening of that much-needed building with the fall term.

The District Camp-meeting—by this misnomer it has been called for years—was unusually well attended, the number of tents being greater than for many years. The preaching was excellent, that by brethren from without the district being exceptionally vigorous and spiritual; the Bible readings conducted by Brother J. E. Newsome were instructive and helpful; but the results were to many disappointing. Such as actively participated in the services were benefited; but a majority of the Christian people in attendance were mere lookers-on, wonderingly waiting for some extraordinary manifestation, or spiritual necromancy, such as Naaman the Syrian leper expected from Elisha the prophet. I am firmly of the conviction that some marked modifications of the plans heretofore followed will be necessary in order to insure future success to this time-honored encampment.

Here, however, as always in the Church, the great problem is that of spirituality of purpose and deed. This is the lack in our Churches, more than of means or members. Class-meetings are largely an unknown quantity. Where they nominally exist, they are attended only by the faithful remnant of the holy seed, who either cherish the tradition or have the experience of the "old-time religion;" but much more frequently the class-meeting is an adjunct of the prayer-meeting, held semi-occasionally where there is no preaching service, and its exercises indistinguishable from the "speaking" phase of any prayer-meeting. With our young people the Epworth League devotional service is generally considered as a substitute or equivalent for the class-meeting, and not infrequently for the regular Church prayer-meeting. This fact bodes no good, either to League or Church.

I last year alluded to the field for work among the Bohemians of Washington County. Fortunately the way opened for securing the services of the Rev. R. M. De Castello, of Cedar Rapids, through the generosity of friends of the enterprise, and a contribution from the income of the Snyder Fund for Home Mission Work in that county. A Sunday-school of thirty members has been gathered, and a congregation of from fifty to sixty has heard the word of life in their mother tongue once a month. The future of this work appears hopeful; another year will test its stability.

Uniform kindness and courtesy have marked my relations with preachers and people; God has been good, and his tender mercies have been over all.

OSKALOOSA DISTRICT.

W. G. WILSON, Presiding Elder.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—In presenting the report of my first year's work on the Oskaloosa District, I gratefully acknowledge the blessing of God in enabling me to meet all my appointments. I have held all my Quarterly Conferences, have tried to preach two hundred times, have administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper seventy-five times, have conducted fifty-nine love-feast services, and have had some part in all the quarterly-meeting services but four. My reception on the district by the brethren, both ministers and laymen, has been all, and more, than I could have asked, and has greatly assisted and encouraged me in my work.

The health of the pastors of the district and their families has, generally, been good. There have, however, been some exceptions. The infant son of Rev. J. A. Sinclair, after a long and distressing illness, died. The parents have found God's grace sufficient. In the latter part of December, Rev. S. P. Souden, pastor of Rose Hill Circuit, was taken seriously ill, and was confined to his home most of the winter, and just as he had recovered sufficiently to enter upon a series of meetings he was further afflicted by the sudden and shocking death of his mother, who was crushed under a railroad train. During his sickness his appointments were very acceptably filled by Rev. Thomas Rowe, a local preacher, of Beacon, Iowa.

In January, in the beginning of what promised to be a gracious meeting, Rev. W. B. Marsh, of New Sharon, was taken down with nervous prostration. He remained with the charge, hoping to be able to go on with his work, until in March, when he asked to be relieved of all responsibility, that he might have undisturbed rest. I appointed Rev. Herbert C. Hart, a local preacher in the charge, who at the time was attending school, as assistant pastor, who has done efficient work in that relation. I am happy to report that rest did for Brother Marsh what he and his friends had hoped, and that he is here to report for duty the coming year.

A daughter of Rev. A. W. Haines, pastor at What Cheer, was taken sick in February while away in college, and has been quite seriously ill most of the time since, until within a few weeks, she is much better, and there is promise of a complete recovery.

It will be remembered that at our last Conference session the wife of our beloved brother, Rev. J. B. Hardy, was reported very ill. This illness continued with increasing severity, accompanied by the most intense suffering, until the first days of December, when, suddenly and unexpectedly, she was not, for God had taken her. Sister Hardy's resignation through all her suffering was perfect, and her faith without a cloud.

The strain upon Brother Hardy was so great that, for a time, it was thought he would soon follow his wife; but I am happy to say that, with the return of spring, renewed health and vigor came back, and he is still with us, always an inspiration and blessing.

To Rev. H. C. Ethell the year has brought continued suffering, and at times his life has been despaired of; but he still lives, and at last report hoped to be present at this Conference.

Rev. W. F. Mair after the close of last Conference removed his family to Pella. He spent most of the winter in the West, and was benefited by the climate. Since the first days of July he has been in West Virginia, and is taking treatment in a sanitarium there, and hopes soon to be a well man.

To many of the homes of our people the year has brought suffering and bereavement. Quite a number have answered the final summons. It is the mission of the Church to prepare people to meet God, and we must not complain when they are taken.

The Church at New Sharon has been peculiarly bereaved in the recent death of Brother H. H. Hammond, for years the superintendent of the Sunday-school, and the district and recording steward, respected and loved by all. Brother Hammond was a glorious man, a rich product of our holy religion. His end was triumphant.

The pastors all went immediately after Conference to their several fields of labor, and, with one exception, are present to report their year's work. In March, Rev. H. E. Colby, pastor of Lacey Circuit, informed me that he had been elected to a professorship in one of our schools, and asked to be relieved of his work. I acceded to his request, and secured Rev. W. A. Longnecker, a member of this Conference, and for the last three years a student in the School of Theology in Boston University, to take the charge. Brother Longnecker has served the charge with efficiency and great acceptability to the people.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS.

The work of enlarging and beautifying the church at Newton, Rev. C. V. Cowan pastor, which was in progress at the time of last Conference, was completed, and the church was reopened by Bishop Vincent the 11th of October.

The entire cost of this improvement was $4,000, and was all raised and has all been paid, except a few hundred dollars kept back until the furnace shall prove satisfactory.

This gives the congregation at Newton one of the best equipped church-edifices in the Conference.

Greenwood church, on the Taintor Circuit, Rev. A. W. McBlain pastor, which also had been projected before the last Conference, was carried forward and completed, and was dedicated by Rev. M. Bamford the 29th of November. The cost of this country church was about $900.

The church-building in which we are assembled was nearing its completion at the last session of the Conference. It was dedicated by Dr. Ives, of New York, on the 13th of December. That was a red-letter day in the history of Oskaloosa Methodism. On that day over $18,000 was laid on God's altar, which, with property held by the trustees, amply provides for all liabilities. The total cost of this church, exclusive of the ground on which it stands, is $38,834. The church speaks for itself, and when we take into consideration the circumstances under which it was built, especially the recent union of the two Churches and the extreme stringency of the times, it stands an enduring monument, not only of the far-seeing faith and masterful leadership of its pastor, Rev. M. Bamford, and of the consecration and practical business ability of the Official Board and Building Committee, but also of the fact that God has put his hand in blessing upon this union. He has caused the hearts of the people to flow together, so that it may be truthfully said, they are no more twain, but one. Hitherto it had been stated as a fact that First Church and Simpson had united; this church-building standing in its strength and beauty is God's declaration that these streams which had flowed in distinct, and, to some extent, rival channels, have, indeed, become one, and the gracious revival which followed the dedication is, I doubt not, a prophecy of the career of usefulness and power upon which it has entered.

Sunday morning, May 2d, the church at Fairview, on the Lacey Circuit, was burned to the ground. There was no insurance, and at first the brethren were discouraged; but under the inspiring leadership of their pastor, Rev. W. A. Longnecker, they went immediately to work, and soon had money sufficient subscribed to replace the old one with a far more convenient and beautiful structure. This new building is to be dedicated the 26th inst., and will cost $900.

Saturday morning, May 8th, the church at Coal Creek, on the Thornburg Circuit, was burned. The brethren here were cheered by receiving $1,060 insurance, and immediately arranged to rebuild. They selected one of our Church Extension plans, and out of the ashes of the old one there has arisen a beautiful modern structure at a cost of $2,000. It was dedicated by Dr. Stafford, August 29th, with great rejoicing, the people shouting grace, grace unto it. The brethren speak enthusiastically of the zeal and efficiency of their pastor, Rev. J. A. Sinclair, in his work, and the congregation voted unanimously inviting him back for another year.

The church at Grinnell, under the able leadership of their pastor, Rev. J. E. Corley, is making substantial progress in meeting the liabilities that people so heroically assumed on the day of dedication.

In quite a number of other charges improvements more or less extensive have been made, and in several instances debts have been paid.

PASTORS' SALARIES.

The allowance to the pastors was about as last year, and in many cases has been paid in full; but I am sorry to say that some will have to report deficiencies. This results largely from the fact that the people are feeling in a remarkable degree the pressure of the times. No market for their grain, and their hogs dying by the tens of thousands, it is, perhaps, not a matter of surprise that the financial interests of the Church have suffered; yet, in some cases, I am constrained to believe the disposition to retrench has been unduly exercised toward the interests of the Church.

BENEVOLENCES.

That the benevolences of the Church should be affected by this condition of things among our people follows as a matter of course. I wish to record my appreciation of the faithfulness of the pastors and many of the people of the district to these interests. I think the aggregate of benevolences will be somewhat in advance of last year. There has been, as I believe, an honest attempt on the part of the pastors to carry out the provision of the Discipline in regard to these interests.

SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

The interests of the Sunday-schools on the district are carefully looked after. The schools are mostly supplied with our own helps, and in many cases liberal provision is made in this regard, but some few persist in using what they claim to be cheaper helps.

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

There are twenty-nine Epworth Leagues in the district, with 1,584 members, and sixteen Junior Leagues, with 908 members. About three hundred Epworth Heralds are taken. These organizations of our young people are everywhere a blessing and inspiration to the Church. A very enthusiastic and successful League Convention was held in New Sharon in June.

DISTRICT CONFERENCES.

Two sessions of the District Conference have been held: one at Brooklyn, November 9th to 11th, and one at Pella, July 12th to 14th. These were fairly well-attended, and are remembered as seasons of blessing.

CHURCH RECORDS.

I have been calling special attention to the Church records, insisting on a report from a Committee on Church Records. In many of the membership records the names of persons who have moved away, in some the names of deceased persons, have been continued on the rolls and reported. I have advised that these names all be properly disposed of, and that only the names of persons present and accounted for be reported for the Minutes. I shall be surprised if this does not result in reducing the aggregate membership reported from this district.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

One of the most discouraging things I have met with on the Oskaloosa District, is the comparatively small number of Church papers taken. There are less than four hundred Advocates taken on the entire district. People can not be much interested in things of which they are ignorant. Ignorance of our Church is a necessity to those who do not read our papers. I have done what I could in this connection, and have reason to believe that the pastors are faithfully attempting to remedy the matter; but the fact is, there is a strange—I will say alarming—apathy on this subject. The great mass of Methodist people on the Oskaloosa District do not read our papers. I wish this district were an exception; but as it is not, here is one of the gravest questions confronting us as a Church, and the most earnest and thoughtful attention should be given it, and we should prepare to adopt heroic methods, if thereby it may be remedied.

SPIRITUAL INTERESTS.

The spiritual work on the district has not been all that was desired and hoped for. In this latitude the fall months present the best opportunity for special meetings. Last fall the political excitement was such that it was almost useless to attempt to hold revival services. In the winter months the weather was extremely unpropitious. The roads much of the time were almost impassable. In addition to these things, there was a vast amount of sickness. In some charges meetings were begun, and had to be closed on account of the great number that were sick. Yet the year has not been without spiritual results. Several precious meetings were held, and in most of the charges there has been substantial progress, and in the neighborhood of five hundred souls have been converted at our altars. As I have passed over the district, I have been constantly reminded that other men have labored, and we have entered into their labors, and have rejoiced to hear in all the Churches the praises of those who have preceded us.

OTTUMWA DISTRICT.

D. C. SMITH, Presiding Elder.

THIS fourth annual report for Ottumwa District finds us, as a Church, holding the ground and making some advancement, notwithstanding the complications and difficulties that have been in the way.

The pastors all went to their charges in reasonable time, and most of them have continued in earnest toil until the close of the year.

One beloved brother, William E. Patterson, pastor of Agency Charge, was called in the midst of the Conference year to exchange the sickle for the crown. His death occurred suddenly on Sunday night after a full and vigorous day's labor in preaching and the other duties of the Sabbath. He was a good man and a faithful minister.

Brother Thomas Osborn, a member of the Conference, was secured to take the pastorate three weeks later, and has done the work well.

Brother J. M. Hooper, in charge of Cedar Circuit, was afflicted with bronchitis most of the year, so that he was not able to do full work much of the time. For the last two months he has been traveling in the West, seeking to regain his health. During his absence Brother E. H. Waring filled the pulpit for several Sabbaths with much acceptability.

Brother J. C. Caughlan, of Eddyville Charge, who entered the year with severe illness—after months of suffering, during which he could do but little ministerial work—has finally, he thinks, entirely recovered his health, and is ready for full work. Several others of the pastors suffered brief disability by affliction, lasting from two to five weeks, but are now all answering to roll-call.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Robinson, the faithful and honored wife of our aged and beloved Brother Anthony Robinson, died in great peace at their home in Ottumwa, June 18, 1897.

The closing year has been somewhat more fruitful in conversions than last year, and I think also in the numbers received into the Church. The growth in material improvement has not equaled some other years, although a good many of the parsonages and churches have been repaired and increased in value and comfort. We mention a few. Furnace heating was placed in the church at Agency. Both the churches of Kirkville Charge were put in excellent repair. Fremont church was much improved by new paper; Willard Street church by new carpet; Lovilia church by carpet, some furniture, and painting; Blakesburg church by papering and painting; Albia parsonage by new veranda and painting; and First Church, Ottumwa, placed new carpets in parsonage and a new pipe-organ in the church.

The Moravia new church, mentioned in our last annual report, was completed and dedicated in November by Rev. Dr. C. L. Stafford.

A new church, called Beulah, and costing $1,008, was built on the Attica Circuit, and dedicated, May 23d, by the writer. Also, on the Eddyville Circuit, Hayden Chapel was built at a cost of about $1,000, and dedicated, June 6th, by Professor W. H. Mahaffie. All these churches are now paid for.

Our District Conferences for the year were held, one in Moravia in November, and the other in Packwood in July. Both were well attended, and very satisfactory in their results, and both were most hospitably entertained by the pastors, members, and citizens.

The Epworth League Chapters are doing some excellent work in the district. They held a very successful Convention in the month of May at Packwood. The Rev. Jesse Bowman Young, D. D., editor of the Central, favored the Convention with his presence, and gave a very attractive and instructive lecture.

Again we record our gratitude to our Heavenly Father for health and strength to do the work assigned us, and to the pastors and people for the kind and Christian treatment extended to us during the year.

Dear Fathers and Brethren: We long to see a more general and thorough revival; one that will lift us to a plane of strong and consistent Christian living and giving, such as we think ought to characterize the disciples of the Lord Jesus. We believe there is among our leaders an increasing sense of this need, which stirs our hope. Too long has this better day been delayed by idleness and little faith on the one hand, and by fanaticism displaying "broad phylacteries," but producing "nothing but leaves" on the other hand. However, there are many who have not "bowed the knee to Baal," who are earnest and obedient toilers, and to whom—it is our faith—the Lord of the Harvest will soon give reward of grains richer and more abundant.

BIBLE SOCIETY.

IN view of the supreme importance of the general circulation of the Word of God at home and abroad, as it is the chief source of supply to our missionary work in all lands, and as it is "the only and sufficient guide for our faith and practice;" therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we are in full sympathy with the American Bible Society in its great aim to give an open Bible to all in our own land in every tongue, and to the whole world, as soon as possible.

Resolved, 2. That we rejoice in the grand record of this Society, in the eighty-one years of its history, in the circulation of over 163,000,000 volumes in nearly one hundred languages and dialects.

Resolved, 3. That we will endeavor to carry out the resolutions of the General Conference, and see that every charge takes its Bible collection, and will endeavor to increase the same till we reach the standard of former years, instead of the humiliation of contributing less than one-third of what we did thirty years ago.

D. S. DUNLAVY, Chairman.

CHAS. COGGESHALL, Secretary.

BOOK ACCOUNTS.

WE, your Committee, would report that, with a few exceptions, the members of the Conference have settled their accounts.

Some residing without the bounds of the Conference have not settled their bills.

R. BREEDEN, Chairman.

E. E. DOUD, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

RECOGNIZING the fact that the past few years have been a time of great financial depression, and that the interests of our Book Concern affect the interests of Methodism in a most vital manner, therefore, we urge that there be given to it our most earnest, enthusiastic support, by increasing our diligence in circulating Methodist literature in the Church, Sunday-school, home and community, and soliciting personally its patronage on the several charges of our Conference.

We are glad to note the steady increase in the patronage of the Epworth Herald and the other periodicals of the Church, and as the Church Advocates have been reduced in price, we confidently expect a larger increase in their circulation this Conference year.

Since all books, wherever published, may be had through the Book Concern, we urge its patronage, that its dividends may be thus increased.

COMMITTEE.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

WE congratulate the Board of Church Extension on the successes achieved from its origin till the present; but past success ought only to be a foundation for larger operations in the future.

Resolved, 1. We are heartily sorry to be informed of the large deficit caused by the neglect of so many pastors to present the cause of Church Extension.

Resolved, 2. We recommend to all pastors "Christianity in Earnest," and also the gratuitous helps furnished by the Board—namely, Glad Tidings and the collection envelopes.

Resolved, 3. We approve of the amount apportioned to the Iowa Conference, and pledge ourselves to use all diligence to raise the said amount, not because of the aid coming to our Conference, but for the good of destitute communities, that the people everywhere may have opportunity to "enter His courts with praise."

JOHN BRIDGES, Chairman.

D. C. BEVAN, Secretary.

CHURCH INSURANCE.

THE Joint Commission of the four Iowa Conferences have succeeded in establishing an insurance company, known as "The Methodist Mutual," insuring only churches, parsonages, and property of ministers. They are now doing business under the laws of the State at a saving of 10 per cent at once, and at the present rate of increase in business, confidently expect, by the 1st of November, to be able to serve all our churches, parsonages, and ministers with insurance at actual cost.

We, therefore, as pastors of these churches, will immediately call the attention of our various Boards of Trustees to this mutual and low rate of insurance.

COMMITTEE.

DEACONESS BOARD.

THE Board, after receiving a satisfactory report and proper indorsement, recommends that the license of Miss Sophia Hubert, as deaconess, be renewed.

They also nominate the following persons for election upon the Board:

Class 1—Mrs. Nellie S. Brush.

Class 2—Mrs. P. M. Musser.

Class 3—Mrs. L. G. Murphy, I. B. Schreckengast, A. V. Kendrick.

The Board further requests the Conference to authorize them to employ a deaconess, within the bounds of the Conference, to represent the deaconess work, and that her support be provided by collections taken in the Churches served.

Respectfully submitted.

MRS. L. G. MURPHY, Secretary.

R. L. PATTERSON, President.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

ALL the accounts referred to us have been examined, and we find all claims paid pro rata, except the following:

Drakeville Charge—R. Weese, $7.

ISAAC BORTS, Chairman.

J. G. BARTON, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

YOUR Committee on District Conference Records have examined the records, and find them correctly kept.

W. H. DILLON, Secretary.

EDUCATION.

WITH gratitude we recognize:

1. That there is such manifest hunger among our young people in general, and young preachers in particular, for higher and specific education.

2. That in our Iowa Wesleyan University in its particular sphere, and other like Methodist institutions in theirs, and in our Garrett, Drew, Boston, DePauw, and Iliff Schools of Theology, are afforded, at moderate cost, ample facilities for satisfying that hunger.

3. That our Board of Education is enabled to furnish so much aid to those who are in need of the same.

We recommend:

1. All Iowa Conference young people, as far as practicable, to attend our school at Mt. Pleasant, and all our young men contemplating the ministry to seek their special equipment at one of our "Schools of the Prophets."

2. That each pastor take, annually, the collection both for our local and general educational work.

3. That the Board of Trustees of Iowa Wesleyan University strictly conform to Article II, Section 6, of Articles of Incorporation, and to the sub-section "(5), (a)," of By-laws, both of which relate to the method of handling and safeguarding the funds of the university.

4. That the following brethren be appointed Visitors to Iowa Wesleyan University, as follows: J. W. Lambert, W. P. Stoddard, and J. C. Calhoun, for one year; J. R. Payne, G. M. Tuttle, and H. C. Hollingsworth, two years; P. J. Henness, W. H. Jones, and J. H. Lukens, three years; the outgoing class to be replaced annually by new members.

That J. W. Hackley and F. E. Brush be Visitors to Garrett; J. A. Boatman, to Drew; R. F. Hurlburt, to DePauw; W. F. Clapp, to Boston, and C. L. Tennant, to Iliff, Schools of Theology, respectively.

We record our sincere appreciation of the visit and addresses on elocution and preaching of Professor G. K. Morris, of Boston University School of Theology, and will hail with delight his coming again.

Also the visits and addresses of Dr. C. H. Payne, of the Board of Education, and Dr. S. L. Beiler, of the American University, and Dr. S. C. Bronson, of Garrett Biblical Institute, and heartily commend the causes they respectively represent.

COMMITTEE.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

WE, your Committee on Epworth League, submit the following report:

We heartily sense the significance of our grand army of young Epworth hosts. We recognize in it that which supplies a great need in our beloved Church. We rejoice in the rapid strides that have been taken during the last year, and record with considerable gratification that we are nearing the two-million line. We commend the Epworth Herald as our official organ. We believe it to be invaluable in Church literature for our young people. The paper has such unquestioned worth that we do not attempt to eulogize it; for it stands on its own distinctive merits. We most heartily indorse the proposition submitted to our Conference by the Iowa Epworth League Commission. We congratulate the League and the Church upon the splendid gift made by Colfax and the Rock Island Railroad. Respectfully submitted.

J. E. VANWINKLE, Secretary.

J. WESLEY POTTER, Chairman.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

WE heartily indorse the work of this Society, and earnestly request our pastors and people to increase the efficiency of its work by increasing their donations to it. There was paid last year from our Conference to this cause $933. There was raised this year $1,155, an increase of $222.

We are glad to mention the gift of Mrs. S. A. White, of Martinsburg, of $500 to this fund, and earnestly hope that others will follow her example and "do likewise."

We are asked to raise $2,600 for the coming year. We believe this can be easily raised if the pastors will take an increased interest in the matter.

We are glad to note that some of our Charges have made an effort to assist in paying the debt, and hope that those who have not done so will do so at once. We are glad to report that $50,000 of the debt has been paid, and earnestly hope the day will soon come when the last dollar is paid.

W. H. JONES, Chairman.

TOMB OF REV. JOSEPH JAMISON.

To the Iowa Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church:

DEAR BRETHREN,—Your Committee, to whom was referred the matter of the tomb of Rev. Joseph Jamison, deceased, beg leave to report that they have made inquiry with respect to the matter referred to them, and find that the Iowa Methodist State Convention, which met at Iowa City, in July, 1871, on motion of Rev. T. E. Corkhill, appointed a Committee to raise the funds and place a monument over the grave in the old cemetery in that city; which Committee afterwards reported the work performed. They also received a letter from Dr. Corkhill, stating that at the prior request of Brother Jamison, the remains were brought to Iowa City for interment, and were buried in a lot belonging to the Church, in the cemetery there, after appropriate services conducted by Dr. Corkhill himself. No further attention seems to be necessary in the case at this time.

Respectfully submitted.

REV. WILLIAM E. PATTERSON.

REV. WILLIAM E. PATTERSON, son of James W. and Maria S. Patterson, was born in Augusta County, Va., May 29, 1845, and died of valvular heart trouble, February 1, 1897. He came with his parents to Iowa in 1855, and settled in Davis County in 1856. In 1863 he enlisted in the United States service, and served faithfully until the close of the Rebellion. He came to Agency City in 1866, and learned and wrought at the trade of a blacksmith with Mr. James Stevens. During his stay here he was converted and united with the Church. Here he soon won the respect and confidence of the Church, and was licensed as a local preacher. About this time he married Miss Susan Beam, and to them was given a son—Arthur Wright Patterson—who resides in Chicago, and is managing editor of the Military Gazette, and literary editor of the Kellogg Newspaper Company. From Agency City, Mr. Patterson moved to Greencastle, Mo., and later to Kirksville, in the same State. There he worked at his trade and served as a local preacher for about a year. In 1870 he returned to Iowa, and was appointed to Vernon Circuit. At the Conference of 1871 he was admitted on trial, and returned to the same charge. There he was bereaved of his first wife, and afterwards he married Miss Clara Ehrman, the mother of his only daughter, Mary S., the wife of Perry L. Murphy, of Vernon, Iowa, who survives him. In a few years the death messenger came to his home again, and he was left to walk alone. Brother Patterson was pastor successively of the following charges: Vernon, Montrose, Independent, Troy, Selma, Milton, Drakeville; First Church, Keokuk; Ainsworth, Fort Madison; First Church, Keokuk, again; West Burlington, Brighton, and Agency City, where, at the time of his death, he was serving his second year with great acceptability. He was a good preacher, and improved to the day of his death in rightly dividing the Word of Truth. His last sermon, preached on the Sabbath night of his death, seemed prophetic, and greatly impressed the audience. His subject was 2 Peter i, 13-16: "Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath showed me. Moreover, I will endeavor that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance. For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." Some lingered in the church after he had retired, and said, "Why, we never heard Brother Patterson preach like that before." He was a highly-esteemed and loyal member of the Conference, always willing and active in the temporal and spiritual work of the Church. He was possessed of considerable architectural skill, and was successful in planning and building several churches, among them the very neat church at Brighton, Iowa. His character as a man and a Christian was without a stain. In 1886 he married Miss Ella

The funeral services were held in the church at Agency, under the charge of the elder, Rev. D. C. Smith, assisted by a number of his ministerial brethren, the pall-bearers being selected from his official members and the Army Post, of which he was the loved chaplain. The burial was at Vernon, with members of the family who had passed on before.

REV. JOHN BURGESS, M. D.

REV. JOHN BURGESS, M. D., a veteran member of the Iowa Conference, passed to his reward May 6, 1897. He was born in Frederick County, Md., May 2, 1821. In early childhood he removed with his parents to Mt. Vernon, O., where he grew to young manhood. At the age of seventeen he entered Newark Seminary, under the presidency of Rev. (afterwards Bishop) Edward Thomson. From there he graduated with honor in 1841. While at school he was licensed to exhort, and soon after to preach. At the North Ohio Conference of 1843 he was admitted on trial, and entered on his career as a Methodist preacher, covering in all fifty-four years. May 10, 1847, he married Sarah A. Grey, who for nearly fifty years shared with him the sunshine and shadow of an itinerant's home. After ten years of labor in Ohio he was transferred to the Illinois Conference, and from thence, in 1858, he came to the Iowa Conference. In the war, Brother Burgess was chaplain of the 30th Iowa Infantry until, prostrated by disease, he was compelled to return home; after which, as pastor of Exchange Street Church, Keokuk, he performed faithful labor among the soldiers in the hospitals at that place. He was the author of a volume of earnest sermons, and of a book of "Pleasant Recollections of Pioneer Methodism." In 1873 he was granted a supernumerary relation at his own request, since which time he has lived a retired, but not an inactive life at Keokuk, Iowa. He had a great desire to live for further usefulness; but as the end drew near, he cheerfully awaited the summons to "come up higher." The memorial service of this servant of the Church was held in First Church, Keokuk, Rev. Dr. Goodfellow, of Chicago; Rev. T. J. Myers, his presiding elder; the pastor of First Church, with which he was associated; and other members of the Conference and ministers of the city, took part in the solemn services, and assisted, with a company of old and well-tried friends in laying, his form in the tomb.

REV. EDWARD W. TWINING.

REV. EDWARD W. TWINING was born in Tolland, Mass., October 5, 1814, and died in Corning, Iowa, May 24, 1897. When he was one year old his parents removed to Granville, O., where he spent his boyhood. He pursued a course of study at the University of Ohio, and afterwards studied theology at Lane Seminary, under Dr. Lyman Beecher. He spent thirty-six years in the active ministry, and was twenty years non-effective. After his graduation from the seminary, he served the Presbyterian Church in Ohio several years as a pastor; but a change coming over him, by which he renounced the stern doctrines of the decrees and embraced the Arminian theory of a general atonement and a free, a full, and a perfect salvation for lost men, he came to Iowa, and spent one winter at Muscatine in teaching. Here, having identified himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church, he commenced his labors as a Methodist preacher in the spring of 1846, when he became a supply on the Richmond Circuit. That fall, at the Conference which met at Bloomington (now Muscatine), Iowa, he was admitted on trial in the Conference, in which he graduated as a deacon at the Conference at Dubuque in 1848, and as an elder at the session held at Fairfield in 1850, being ordained a deacon by Bishop Thomas A. Morris, and elder by the sainted Hamline. His appointments in the Conference were: 1846, Bear Creek Mission; 1847, Iowa City Mission; 1848-49, Washington Mission; 1850-51, Marion Mission; 1852, Tipton; 1853, Iowa City again; 1854, Fort Des Moines Mission. In 1855 he located, but the following year was readmitted, and from 1856 to 1859 was on the Muscatine District; 1860-61, Bethel Circuit; 1862-63, Richmond Circuit; 1864-65, Lexington; 1866-67, Crawfordsville. From 1868 to 1871 he was superannuated, and resided in Washington, Iowa. In 1872 he was again made effective, and appointed to Keota; 1873-75, Coneville. In the centenary year, 1876, he finally retired from the active work, since which time he has resided at Corning, Iowa. He was a preacher of more than ordinary ability, and his zeal and self-sacrifice gained him a warm place in the hearts of the people he served. He was closely connected with the founding of Cornell College, and personally secured the first teacher for that institution. February 3, 1840, he married Adaline Weed, and five children resulted from this union, the only survivor being Dr. E. T. Twining, of Sheldon, Iowa. Having lost his first wife in 1848, on August 28, 1849, he married Priscilla B. Ashby, who, with an only son and his family, resides in Corning. Having suffered from paralysis some years ago, he had been recently in feeble health; but he was able to be on the street till within a week of his death. He was a warm friend to his pastor, and his faith and patience were a benediction to all who knew him. His funeral was attended by several ministers, including his neighbor, the Catholic priest, who united in honoring his memory. His remains were placed in the Corning cemetery. The Iowa Conference never had a truer man than Edward W. Twining.

REV. DR. THOMAS E. CORKHILL.

REV. DR. THOMAS E. CORKHILL was born on the Isle of Man, April 24, 1822, and died, after seven months of patient waiting, at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, June 30, 1897. His parents came to America in the year of his birth, and settled in Ohio. In 1849 he came to Henry County, Iowa, and began the practice of medicine. Converted when a boy, and reared by godly parents, who were among the first to embrace the Methodist doctrine in their native country and to endure persecution for it, it is not surprising that he should have been early called to the ministry. In 1844 he married Lucinda Crawford, and to them were given ten children, five of whom survive. One of these holds a position in the Treasury Department at Washington City, one is filling a chair in Simpson College, and a third is a member of this Conference. Brother Corkhill entered the Iowa Conference on trial at the session of 1851. He was ordained deacon in 1853 by Bishop Levi Scott, and elder in 1855 by the eloquent Matthew Simpson. His appointments, which speak well alike for his talent and his faithfulness, have been: 1851, Middletown; 1852, Iowa City Mission; 1853, Dubuque Station; from 1854 to 1857, inclusive, agent of the Iowa Wesleyan University; 1858-59, Chatham Square, Keokuk; 1861-63, Mt. Pleasant District. In the fall of 1862, however, he was commissioned chaplain of the 25th Iowa Infantry, and was succeeded on his district by the Rev. J. Q. Hammond. On March 23, 1863, Brother Hammond having died, and Brother Corkhill, after faithful and efficient service in the army, returning on account of affliction, he resumed the work of the district. In 1864-66 he was at Division Street, Burlington. His subsequent appointments were: 1867, Oskaloosa Station; 1868, Conference missionary, but changed to fill a vacancy in Main Street, Mt. Pleasant, where he was returned in 1869; 1870-71, First Church, Ottumwa; 1872-74, Canaan Circuit; 1875-76, Centerville Station; 1877-80, Keokuk District; 1881-82, Bloomfield Station; 1883, agent Iowa Wesleyan University; 1884-86, Simpson Church, Oskaloosa; 1887-88, Mt. Pleasant Circuit; 1889, Salem and Hillsboro. In 1890 he took a supernumerary relation, since which time he has remained non-effective. In other ways than the ministry he has been active. To his wise foresight and influence is very largely to be attributed the establishment of the State Reform and Industrial Schools at Eldora and Mitchellville. It was by his influence that the Legislature of the State passed the bill erecting the Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute into the Iowa Wesleyan University. He secured the services of James Harlan, afterwards senator and Secretary of the Interior, as its first president. As we have seen, he was for several years its financial agent, and he gave invaluable aid to the institution by his wise counsels as one of its trustees, a post he filled from its beginning, in 1855, to his death. He was always prominent in the deliberations of the Conference, which he represented as a delegate in the General Conference of 1860. He was a man of many most estimable qualities of mind and heart; a fine preacher, a close student, a systematic worker, a faithful pastor, a wise administrator, a true friend, and a devoted Christian. His character was without reproach. "To do his Master's will was his chief thought and holiest ambition. Quiet, unobtrusive, if anything depreciating his own merits, he was at the same time manly, aggressive, and determined. A man of undoubted convictions, he exhibited a sweetness of spirit, a grace of soul, and a dignity of life that won for him the respect of all his associates. Men confided to him their secrets, sought his advice, and depended upon his judgment. To the writer, a prominent member of the General Conference once said, 'I believe that man Corkhill has more influence with the bishops than any other man in Iowa.' All of his children were with him during the last sad days. In much weakness of body, he had marvelous strength of spirit. His faith was increased by several remarkable revelations given him by the Lord. Serene, sincere, and pious, he 'walked with God,' and was very happy; and he died well. For him 'to live was Christ; to die was gain.'"

MRS. EMILY AMELIA HARDY.

EMILY AMELIA HARDY, wife of Rev. J. B. Hardy, and daughter of Rev. Milton Jameson, was born in Mt. Sterling, Ky., February 12, 1826, and died in Brooklyn, Iowa, December 1, 1896. She was converted and united with the Church when about twelve years old, and remained through life a faithful member. Her marriage to Father Hardy was on July 9, 1845, and with him she shared the trials and triumphs of the life of a pioneer itinerant for over fifty years. To them were born two daughters, who, with her husband, survive her. Mrs. Hardy had great intellectual power, and was a great student. To enjoy her society was instructive and edifying. She was a sufferer through most of her life, and especially the last year; but she bore it all with Christian fortitude. When unable to sleep for pain, she spent whole nights in prayer, and towards the close of her life she seemed to dwell constantly on the mount with God. Her faith was unflinching, whether in sunshine or shadow. When the glory of the sun was all about her, she would exclaim, "I will enjoy it all;" and when the shadows came, she would repeat, "Under the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge until these calamities are overpast." She expressed a willingness to "depart and be with Christ;" and as her feet touched the waters of death, she said, with great fervor, "Rock of ages, cleft for me," repeating again, deliberately, the words, "Cleft for me." When the moment of departure came, she lifted her hand towards heaven, and said, "Lord Jesus, give me sleep," and with this prayer on her lips she passed beyond the veil. Father Hardy is now the oldest member of the Conference, having entered the Rock River Conference on trial in 1842, when he was assigned to labor in the Iowa District; and when this Conference was formed, in 1844, he was admitted into full connection. Being now bereaved, he has with him the sincere sympathies and prayers of the Conference and Church. The funeral of Sister Hardy was conducted in Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, Iowa, by the pastor, Rev. A. V. Kendrick, assisted by Rev. W. G. Wilson and Rev. I. N. Busby, and the remains were laid away in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery at Brooklyn.

MRS. SARAH ANN ROBINSON.

MRS. SARAH ANN ROBINSON, daughter of William and Mary Hammond, was born in Kentucky, July 26, 1821, and died in Ottumwa, Iowa, June 18, 1897. Her early life was spent in Indiana, where she was converted when about twelve years old. Oct. 7, 1838, she was married, near Boonville, Ind., to Rev. Anthony Robinson, then of the Southeast Indiana Conference. For forty-five years she shared with her husband the varied experiences of the wife of an effective preacher, and she was ever a loyal, devoted, and efficient helpmate. In 1857 her husband was transferred from Indiana to the Iowa Conference, and stationed at Ottumwa. For some eighteen years the family home was in the city of Mt. Pleasant, where the children of the family enjoyed the advantages of training in the Iowa Wesleyan University. In 1883, Brother Robinson superannuated, and thereupon removed to Ottumwa, where they have since resided. Sister Robinson's last illness continued for thirteen weeks, and she bore her sufferings in serene faith and unbroken peace until God tenderly removed her to the heavenly home. Her experience was of the undoubting, radiant type, and when giving her testimony in the class and love-feast, her speech was direct and simple as a child's, and her face shone like a seraph's. She was early led into the blessed experience of perfect love; and amid all her sorrows and heavy labors she never lost that crown of glory. In her Christian life she combined practical common sense with glowing faith and enthusiastic devotion, and was a personal worker for Christ of rare power and success. Six children were born to her, of whom three are living: Mrs. Mary McDonald, widow of that noble man and minister, Dr. J. Wilbur McDonald; Mrs. T. J. Zollars, of Denver, Col.; and Rev. W. T. Robinson, who has recently returned after seventeen years of successful missionary work in South America. The funeral services were conducted in First Church, Ottumwa, by the pastor, Rev. F. E. Brush, assisted by Revs. I. P. Teter and J. T. Simmons, long-time friends and ministerial comrades of Brother Robinson.

MEMORIAL FROM OSKALOOSA DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

WHEREAS, The claims of our Conference claimants being ministerial and not benevolent claims against the Churches, we, the Oskaloosa District Conference, respectfully memorialize the Iowa Annual Conference to so recognize these claims as ministerial claims against the several charges, and the stewards of the several charges be requested to provide for these claims as ministerial claims, and that they share pro rata with the bishop, presiding elder, and pastor.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

WE recognize the Sabbath as a Divine institution. Its observance is laid upon us by the commandment of God. Obedience to it is not made contingent upon shifting circumstances. We are persuaded that this commandment is not grievous to one whose heart is right with God.

The injunction to keep the Sabbath is not the expression of an arbitrary will, but the ordinance of a wise and beneficent government. We believe that in the mind of God the day is designed to be, not only a day of rest for the body, but also a time of refreshing and a recruiting station for the soul. All men need this. Our Heavenly Father has herein provided a season in which his children may draw apart from worldly care, and commune with him without distraction.

We are enjoined to abstain from two things chiefly on this holy day:

First, we are to do no labor, works of mercy and necessity specially excepted. Business is wrongly adjusted when it encroaches upon this sacred day in matters great or small. The excuses offered for such encroachment seldom proceed from a truly loyal heart. The thought should be: This ground is not ours, and we are trespassers when we bring our personal enterprises upon it. Even Church business which is not a necessary adjunct to worship should be excluded.

Second, we are not to do our own pleasure. All manner of diversion—even social entertainments, which serve no higher purpose than personal gratification—is hurtful.

We are living in an age when men are generally restive under even wholesome restraint. We are not to drift with the tide, but strive to turn the current in the right direction. The Sabbath is subjected to all manner of assaults, open or insidious. We urge upon our ministers and people great diligence in inculcating true principles of Sabbath observance by preaching, by public and private instruction, and by example. Let every Methodist show to the world an example of cheerful sacrifice of personal convenience and interest, if need be, that the Sabbath be kept holy. We earnestly recommend to all of our people the close study of all ecclesiastical and civic movements for the promotion of Sabbath observance, in order that they may intelligently co-operate in these movements.

COMMITTEE.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

YOUR Committee on the State of the Church submit the following report:

We are glad to note the increase of the fraternal spirit which exists between the various branches of the Christian Church. Denominational preferences still properly exist, but unreasonable preferences are rapidly diminishing. We believe there never was a time when the cause of Christian education received more earnest consideration and more liberal contributions than at the present.

We rejoice also that the Church is beginning to take in the idea that its mission is the complete subjugation of the whole world to Jesus Christ, and that God designs to accomplish this through human instrumentalities; that Christianity is a missionary religion, and those who do not have this spirit do not possess the Spirit of Christ.

The mission and power of the Holy Spirit are receiving more attention than heretofore, which indicates that the Church has a higher conception of the necessity of the Divine enduement in order to succeed in her great work.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

"THE powers that be are ordained of God." Church and State were so co-ordinated at the birth of our nation that each has had the fullest liberty without trespassing on the domain of the other. The Church supplies the moral sentiment fundamental to the enactment and enforcement of righteous laws, while the State determines the policies to be pursued in reaching the ends of civil government.

The present state of the country gives rise to mingled emotions in the heart of the Christian patriot. The indications of material prosperity are reassuring; the hopeful outlook is calling into activity abandoned industries, and giving employment to multitudes anxiously waiting for financial help; the spirit of jingoism is confined to a hopeless minority, and the broader statesmanship that counsels peace and seeks to secure it through courts of arbitration is controlling the helm of State.

On the other hand, the Christian patriot has much cause for alarm. The State winks at the greed of the great corporations by allowing them to profane the Sabbath and rob the wage-earner of his divine right—a day of rest; the State joins hands with the iniquitous rum-power by sharing in the profits of the business; and last, but not least, the State too often elevates to official position the unscrupulous politician. These great evils dishonor God, and menace our nation's happiness and perpetuity. From the fact that the religious impulse is stronger than the social, it follows that, in a republic like ours, the Church is largely responsible for the morals of the State. It therefore behooves the Church to arouse herself, not to take hold of the helm of State, but to so mold the minds and hearts of the masses in the homes and Churches that public sentiment will demand the enactment and enforcement of righteous laws, and the elevation to office of men who fear God and keep his commandments.

COMMITTEE.

TEMPERANCE.

YOUR Committee, to whom was referred the subject of Temperance, beg leave to report for your adoption as follows:

We are impressed with the fact that the time has fully come in the history of the temperance movement in this State for the most earnest and hearty work upon the part of all the friends of the cause, and the union of all the forces of the Church, and of all who love our Lord Jesus Christ and suffering humanity, in a holy crusade against the liquor-power, that has in recent years so signally shown its influence in our halls of legislation, has secured the virtual overthrow of prohibition in Iowa, and has succeeded in the enactment of the infamous Mulct Law, and the no less infamous Manufacturers' Bill, in our State. We affirm that the claim that prohibition did not prohibit in the State was false and misleading; and we assert that the evils of the present legislation will be more and more apparent in the demoralization of the people, in the increase of the costs of criminal procedures and pauperism, and in the ruin of unnumbered thousands of our young men in the use of intoxicating drinks offered to them under authority of law in the licensed saloons, as well as in the vile "holes in the wall," in drugstores, and elsewhere, winked at and permitted by the police of the State.

We offer for your consideration the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we condemn the betrayal of the interests of the people by their senators and representatives, who used their votes for the passage of the Mulct Law, and the re-establishment in Iowa of the manufacture of intoxicating drinks.

Resolved, 2. That we call upon all our people to rise superior to party ties, and urge them to vote for no man for public office who does not assert himself as in favor of the most vigorous legal measures for the suppression of the drink-traffic in the State.

Resolved, 3. That we again affirm our fixed conviction that any measures short of the prohibition of the traffic will be found inefficient and vain, and that it is our view that all the lovers of temperance should unite to labor for the re-enactment of our prohibitive laws, and the ultimate establishment in Iowa of constitutional prohibition.

Resolved, 4. That we call the attention of our people to the provisions of the Discipline against the signing of petitions for saloons, or doing anything in the furtherance of the unholy and nefarious traffic in alcoholic beverages.

Resolved, 5. That we approve most heartily of the movement to unite all the friends of the cause in Iowa, of all Churches and outside of the Churches, in a non-partisan anti-saloon movement; and therefore urge the establishment of local and county Anti-saloon Leagues in all the counties throughout the Conference.

Resolved, 6. That we congratulate the people of those counties of the State which have refused to allow the establishment of Mulct saloons within their borders, and urge them to steadfastness in their opposition to all future attempts that may be made to defeat prohibition in such counties.

Resolved, 7. That we solemnly pledge ourselves to active, zealous, and hearty effort, in every available form, in opposition to the reign of Rum, and in favor of the promotion of Temperance, Virtue, and Righteousness throughout the land.

Your Committee on Temperance would further report, recommending the appointment of two delegates, with two alternates, to attend the next National Anti-saloon Convention, to be held on the 11th, 12th, and 13th of January, 1898, at Columbus, O.

TOBACCO.

YOUR Committee on Tobacco desire to submit the following report:

WHEREAS, It is our candid conviction that the use of tobacco in any form is injurious physically, mentally, financially, morally, and spiritually to all who indulge in it; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That, by teaching and example, we will in all possible ways discourage its use among our people, especially among the young men and boys who are identified with our Epworth Leagues.

Resolved, 2. That we condemn the use of tobacco by our ministers, many of whom made a pledge of abstinence when admitted to the Conference.

Resolved, 3. That those among us who excuse themselves by saying that no such requirement was made of them when admitted to the Conference, be now required to abandon this habit, so unnecessary, unclean, and unchristian.

REPORT OF VISITORS.

YOUR Committee appointed to visit the Iowa Wesleyan University submit the following report:

We attended the meetings of the Board of Trustees, and the closing exercises of the college. We heartily commend the faithful and unselfish work of the President and every member of the Faculty. We are persuaded that the students, as a body, have faithfully earned the credit given them. A careful visitation of all the classes while in session, by one member of this Committee, assures us that instruction has been most carefully given by the professors of the departments; that the students have had a decided and praiseworthy interest in their studies, and that we can hope to find no more thorough work anywhere than our college furnishes. We note with pleasure the increased facilities for the breadth of curriculum and thoroughness of work furnished by the new mechanical, electrical, and industrial department; the accession of Howe's Academy; the new principalship of the preparatory department,—all of which will materially strengthen the college work.

It is with pleasure that we report the success of the ladies' dormitory and its completion in time for occupancy in September. This will be a feature in the future of the college difficult now to estimate in its beneficial results.

We earnestly and sincerely commend the College to the loyal support and active co-operation of every member of our Church and Conference.

U. B. SMITH, Treasurer.

Your Committee to whom the memorial from the Oskaloosa District Conference, relative to our Conference claimants, was referred, would make the following report :

1. The support of our wornout ministers and those dependent upon them being a sacred obligation upon the Church, and not as a matter of benevolence, we deem it but just that their claim for support be on the same basis as that of bishops, presiding elders, and pastors—for service rendered; and would respectfully recommend that the Conference Board of Stewards apportion to the several districts the amount deemed necessary to meet the claims upon the Conference for their support, and that the district stewards apportion the amounts to the charges, and that the stewards of the several charges apportion the same to the members severally, and provide for its payment in the same manner that other ministerial claims are raised.

2. We further recommend that you memorialize the ensuing General Conference to so amend Paragraph 293 of the Discipline by adding to the same the following: "And that said amount be a pro rata claim against the charge with those of bishops, presiding elder, and pastor.

Respectfully submitted.

BOARD OF STEWARDS.

WHEREAS, The collection for Conference claimants shows a decrease this year, and the number of claimants an increase, and there is an unjust disparity between the amounts raised by many charges for missions and this fund,—

Resolved, 1. That while too much is not raised for missions, the Conference claimants' collection should not be practically ignored; but a decided effort should be made on the part of the preachers to raise their full apportionment.

Resolved, 2. That the presiding elders be requested to bring this cause before the first Quarterly Conference, and urge the pastors and charges to give special attention to raising this popular collection.

BOARD OF STEWARDS.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

IN gratitude to Almighty God for the success that has crowned the labors of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society,—

Resolved, That we commend the Des Moines Branch of this Society in being able to conduct its work without debt, and we especially congratulate them in their gift of four hundred dollars ($400), received from one within the bounds of this Conference.

Resolved, That we encourage the organization of local societies within the bounds of each charge of the Conference.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church is one of the organized benevolent organizations of the Church, and has done and is now doing a great work in its Industrial Homes, Mission Schools, deaconess work, for the neglected classes in the great cities and in all parts of our own country, working in harmony with and supplementing the established benevolent work of the Church; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we recommend the organization of auxiliary societies in all our charges, and that we will gladly welcome its representatives to all our charges.

COMMITTEE.

IOWA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

THE Secretary of your Board of Trustees of the Iowa Wesleyan University begs to present this, the Forty-third Annual Report of your Conference school :

The catalogue for 1897 shows a total enrollment in all departments of the college of 321—a decrease of 19.

Not having access to the Treasurer's report at the time of preparing this report, I am unable to give the items asked for at the last Conference session. Perhaps the Treasurer will supply the same. But there has been no material change in the finances of the school. The income, as usual, was some hundreds of dollars less than the expenses of the college year, and the general indebtedness is correspondingly increased.

To avoid the further repetition of this uncanny fact, the trustees, at their last meeting, increased the incidental fee of each student $10 per year. Also, all reduction to preachers and their children was abolished, so that hereafter, when we patronize the institution, we will pay for ourselves and our children the same as other folks.

The Faculty and salaries remain practically the same as last year.

W. I. Babb, who has served as Treasurer of the Board for about twenty years, at the last meeting declined a re-election, and Rev. T. J. Myers was chosen to the place, and also recommended to be appointed College Agent at the present session of Conference.

The building for the Industrial Department is completed, and that school has been in operation a year. Its friends hope that it will accomplish much good in the way of manual training, and practical work in electricity, etc., and withal be quite an attraction for the college.

The Ladies' Dormitory and Boarding Hall, known as the "Elizabeth Hershey Hall," is complete and ready for occupancy at the opening of the ensuing year.

It is a sad duty to have to report the death of Rev. T. E. Corkhill, who has been connected with the school, as Trustee and otherwise, from its incipency. He fell on sleep soon after the last annual meeting of the Board, in June. He will long be missed as a faithful, hopeful, helpful friend of Christian education in general, and the Iowa Wesleyan University in particular.

What has long been known as the Howe Academy, a school about as old as the college, and located at the same town, was, by action of the Board of Trustees, at last meeting, incorporated with the University, but yet is to continue its distinct work and its peculiar methods. But all its work and income are under the supervision of the Board. It is thought this union will materially increase the patronage and influence of the Iowa Wesleyan University throughout its patronizing territory, as the old Academy has all along commanded a large normal and academic patronage.

Mr. Howe, the proprietor and Principal of the Academy, is to receive a salary of $1,500 a year for ten years.

The terms of the following Trustees expire with this date, viz.: D. C. Smith, Jas. Harlan, W. I. Babb, E. L. Schreiner, J. E. Corley, and Mrs. L. W. Byrkit; also, as noted above, by death, T. E. Corkhill.

Respectfully submitted.

J. E. CORLEY, Secretary.

PUBLISHING AGENT'S REPORT.

LECTURES OF DR. GEORGE K. MORRIS.

THE members of the Iowa Conference desire to express their appreciation of the generous aid supplied by Bishop John P. Newman, which has enabled them to profit richly by the excellent addresses of Dr. George K. Morris, of the Boston University School of Theology, in the interests of the highest pulpit and pastoral efficiency. His lectures are worthy of the highest commendation for their comprehensive and definite exposition of sacred oratory, both as a science and as an art; for their rare felicity of expression; for the grace of manner in which they were presented; for their eloquence of utterance; above all, for the constant emphasis placed upon the necessity of the Divine enduement of power as the highest and best equipment for ministerial service.

ACTION OF THE IOWA ANNUAL CONFERENCE UPON
INVITING THE NEXT GENERAL CONFERENCE TO KANSAS CITY.

WHEREAS, The Methodist Episcopal Preachers' Meeting of Kansas City and vicinity, representing our Churches of the two Kansas Cities, and those of the adjoining districts within the bounds of the St. Louis, Kansas, West German, Central Missouri, and Swedish Conferences, has invited the next General Conference to hold its session in Kansas City, the Official Boards of all our Churches, numbering twenty, in the two cities named, the Commercial Club and the Board of Trade concurring; and

WHEREAS, The acceptability, accommodations, auditorium, and hospitality of said locality are well known, assuring ample provision for the requirements of such gathering; and

WHEREAS, We believe that great benefit would accrue, especially to the work of our Church in the States of Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Oklahoma, Texas, and Arkansas, together representing one of the most promising fields for missionary and Church extension enterprise in all Methodism; and

WHEREAS, Said invitation received favorable consideration by the committee of the last General Conference, and is now in the hands of the General Book Committee, having full charge of the matter; therefore,

Resolved, That the Iowa Annual Conference, now assembled, favor such invitation, and hereby request our representative on the General Book Committee to make known this action at the proper time.

MEMORIAL OF IOWA STATE EPWORTH LEAGUE
ASSEMBLY COMMISSION TO THE IOWA CONFERENCES.

WE, the Commissioners appointed at the late Convention of the Iowa State Epworth League, held at Cedar Rapids, being authorized to receive propositions from the several Iowa resorts, and permanently locate the "Iowa State Epworth League Assembly and Training-school," have performed the duties of our office, and are pleased to report that we have succeeded in locating the Assembly at Colfax. In consideration of such location, the city of Colfax has made us a clear donation of the most beautiful park in the West, consisting of twenty-five acres of woodland, upon which they also, aided by the Rock Island Railroad, have built and donated one of the most commodious and substantial auditoriums to be found anywhere, all of which is given without any cost to us; and adding to the value of this splendid donation is one of the celebrated Colfax Mineral Springs running upon the grounds, a Rock Island depot near the edge of the park, and many other conveniences, including the great "Hotel Colfax," within three blocks' distance from the auditorium, which, with the central location, make the gift a valuable one. All this property is given to the Methodist Episcopal Church of Iowa, for the benefit of the Epworth League of the State.

We, the Commissioners, in order to accept and hold this property, found it necessary to form ourselves into a corporation, and have therefore incorporated under the name of the "Iowa State Epworth League Assembly." Our articles of incorporation provide that there shall be a commission, consisting of the three Commissioners now in office under the Iowa State Epworth League, and two additional to be elected by the coming session of the Iowa State Epworth League Convention, and one to be elected by each of the four Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Iowa. These nine thus elected shall constitute a Commission, whose duty it shall be to more fully complete the organization of the "Iowa State Epworth League Assembly." We therefore pray that your Annual Conference, now in session, shall elect one such Commissioner to meet with said body, to complete the aforesaid organization, as per subsequent notice which shall be given such Commissioner thus elected, by the Chairman or Secretary of the Commission.

J. W. MAHOOD,
CHAS. J. ENGLISH,
F. E. DAY,
Commissioners.
